Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

From on Board His Majeſty's Ship the Cumberland at Revel, July 30. The 17th Inſtant we ſail'd from Dantzig, and on the 22d being off the Iſland of Dagho we met a Muſcovite Squadron conſiſting of 7 Sail, which was going to cruiſe upon the Coaſt of Finland. On the 23d we paſſed by the Muſcovite Fleet, which lay at Anchor under a Place called Roguerwyck, and were about 19 Men of War commanded by Admiral Count Apraxin; for the Czar on board his Ship wears the Diſtinction of Vice-Admiral of the Blue. The ſame Day we came to Anchor in this Port, whither the Muſcovite Fleet returned the next Day. Sir John Norris upon their Arrival ſent a Compliment, and waited that Night on his Czariſh Majeſty on board his Admiral; the Czar has ſince been on board our Admiral, and was received with the Salutes which the Fleet has always paid to Princes. Orders are ſent to haſten the Trade from Peterſburgh, and to bring them to the Rendezvous here, after which we ſhall proceed to gather in the Trade from Riga, Coningsberg and Dantzig in order to convoy them thro' the Balick.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 24. The 19th Vice Admiral Troyel was detached with 7 Men of War, and a new Prame or flat-bottom'd Boat, towards the Iſle of Rugen to be aſſiſtant in covering Vice-Admiral Sehelled's Flotilla, ſeveral Tranſport Ships joined the ſaid M. Troyel at Sea, which were to carry Artillery, Proviſions and other Neceſſaries to M. Scheiled; we expect daily to hear that this laſt Vice Admiral has forced the Paſſage by the Iſle of Ruden, and that M. Roſenpalm has at the ſame time made a Deſcent in that of Rugen. The 20th two Ships of Admiral Rabe's Squadron, that is the Wenden and the Fuhnen were brought into this Port to be diſarmed, and the Jotteburg and the Sudermanland are fitting out in their ſtead. Admiral Rabe who has lain for ſome Days at Anchor with 12 Men of War at Steffens near Kiog, to be ready to go to Sea in caſe the Swedes had come out of Carlſcrona ſo ſoon as they had ſaid they would, having now received all his Proviſions, and having been thoroughly refitted for Service, was to ſet ſail Yeſterday in the Evening in order to join Vice Admiral Troyel on the Coaſt of Rugen. We hear that Rejoicings have been made at Stockholm on account of the laſt Sea-Fight, and to Morrow Te Deum will be ſung here on the ſame Occaſion, with a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon of the Town and Citadel, and of all the Ships in this Harbour.

Hambourg, Auguſt 30. Letters from Carlſcrona of the 20th Inſtant adviſe, that the Swediſh Fleet being refitted was ready to put to Sea again, and was reinforced by 3 Ships of War: They add, that the Swediſh Admiral in Chief has Orders to oppoſe at all Hazards a Deſcent on the Iſland of Rugen or on that of Ruden; ſo that 'tis likely there will ſoon be another Naval Engagement. The Prames carrying heavy Artillery, with ſeveral Tranſports and Galliots, having joyned the Daniſh Vice-Admiral Sehelled, 'tis ſuppoſed he is now in a Condition to open a Paſſage through the New Deep, and that in Conſequence a Deſcent on the Iſland of Rugen will be attempted by 15000 Daniſh, 10000 Pruſſian Foot and Cavalry in Proportion, who are appointed for that Enterprize; of the Succeſs of which we may expect to hear very ſuddenly.

Ratisbon, Auguſt 26. Baron Zundte, formerly Miniſter of Bavaria to the Dyet, and deſigned again for the ſame Poſt, is dead at Munich. It is ſaid he will be ſucceeded here by Count Konigſfeldt, who was lately employed in a Commiſſion from the Elector to his Brother at Cologne. But that Count cannot come hither before France has given the Elector Palatine Satisfaction about the Bailliage of Germerſheim, the Elector of Bavaria's Inveſtiture and Reſtoration to his Rank in the Empire being delayed till then by the Imperial Court. Count Boſen the Saxon Miniſter here ſets out the next Week on his Ambaſſy to the Imperial Court, in order to receive the Inveſtiture of that Electorate. Some Letters from Vienna of the 17th Inſtant, ſay there was great Probability of that Court's declaring War againſt the Turks, the Venetians offering to advance to the Emperor 5 Millions of Dollars, and to pay a Million of Dollars yearly as long as the War ſhall laſt; the Pope offers likewiſe a conſiderable Sum, and to impower his Imperial Majeſty to levy annually the Tenths of the Revenues of the Clergy of his Hereditary Dominions during the War.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 31. The Deputies of the States General for adjuſting the Treaty of Barrier arriving at Antwerp on the 22d Inſtant, Count Konigſeck the Emperor's Miniſter went thither on the 23d: On the 27th that Miniſter returned hither, but went back again yeſterday Morning to Antwerp, where the Conferences for ſettling the Barrier are ſuſpended till the Arrival of a Courier who has been ſome time expected from Vienna.
